AN ACT to amend Chapter 454 of the Private Acts of 1967; and any other acts amendatory thereto, relative to school building construction and the board of education budget.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Section 10 of Chapter 454 of the Private Acts of 1967, and any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by adding the following language at the end of the third paragraph following the language "provided funds for the same.":

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Quarterly County Court, or its successor, shall have the authority, in its discretion, to permit the Public Building Authority of Rutherford County, to plan, design, locate, erect, construct and furnish new construction buildings and/or construction additions including, but not limited to, new schools.

SECTION 2. Section 11 of Chapter 454 of the Private Acts of 1967, and any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by adding the following language after the first sentence:

At the same time, the Board shall, by individual roll call vote, establish and approve the total ad valorem property tax necessary to fund the Board's recommended budget with the understanding that the Quarterly County Court, or its successor retains the final authority to establish and set the county's ad valorem real property tax as provided by law.

SECTION 3. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the legislative body of Rutherford County. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the legislative body and certified to the secretary of state.

SECTION 4. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective as provided in Section 3.
